What Are Points?

Points are the rewards you earn under the Program. You can use them to make purchases or redeem for cash.

How You Earn Rewards

The number of points you earn is based on a percentage of your eligible purchases. This percentage is expressed as a multiplier (for example, 3X equals 3% of the eligible purchase amount). We call this multiplier your card’s “Earn Rate,” which may vary by purchase category if your card has a tiered rewards structure.

Navy Federal More Rewards American Express®
Earn Rate	Purchase Category
3X	Gas, transit, restaurants, food delivery, supermarkets
1X	All other eligible purchases (base points)

Navy Federal Visa Signature® Flagship Rewards
Earn Rate	Purchase Category
3X	Travel
2X	All other eligible purchases (base points)

Navy Federal GO REWARDS®
Earn Rate	Purchase Category
3X	Restaurants
2X	Gas
1X	All other eligible purchases (base points)

The following is an example of the points you would earn on an eligible purchase with a Visa Signature® Flagship Rewards Card:

Example: Visa Signature® Flagship Rewards
	Amount	Earn Rate	Rewards Earned
Purchase (non-Travel)	$100	2X	200
Return Merchandise Credit	($20)		(40)
Rewards earned on	$80		160

Additionally:

- Rewards update when the eligible purchase transaction posts to your account.
- Rewards do not expire as long as your account remains open.
- There is no minimum redemption amount through the Navy Federal mobile app or when you use online banking at navyfederal.org.
- There is no monthly or annual cap on the amount of rewards you can earn.

More information about Merchant Category Codes (MCCs):

MCCs are assigned to merchants by payment networks based on the types of goods and services they sell. We use these codes to determine whether a purchase transaction is eligible to earn rewards and which Earn Rate to apply. When you purchase directly from a merchant—online or in-store—your purchase transaction’s MCC is more likely to accurately reflect the type of purchase you made.

Ineligible Transactions (Do NOT Earn Rewards)

- Cash advances
- Convenience checks
- Balance transfers
- Gambling
- Finance charges & fees
 - Late fees
 - Returned checks
 - ATM cash advances
- Cash-equivalent transactions
 - Gift cards - (i.e., the purchase, loading, or reloading of gift and prepaid cards/GO Prepaid Cards)
 - Money orders
 - Person-to-person money transfers through third-party services (e.g., Venmo, PayPal, Cash App, Remitly)
- Unauthorized (fraudulent) transactions

Value of Rewards

You will earn at least 1 point for every $1 you spend on eligible purchases, no matter which card you have. Eligible purchases in categories with higher Earn Rates earn more than 1 point per dollar. Every 1 reward point is worth $0.01 when redeemed for cash. Think of 1X point rewards as 1% of the purchase amount.

Example:

- 100 points = $1
- 1,000 points = $10

Example of Cash Value
Earn Rate	Spend	Earned Points	Points Converted to Cash
1X	$1,000	1,000	$10
2X		2,000	$20
3X		3,000	$30

Rewards Pooling

Rewards Pooling allows you to combine points you have earned on other Navy Federal credit cards into a single shared pool for redemption.

Example of Rewards Pooling
Card Type	Rewards Points	Dollar Value
Navy Federal More Rewards American Express®	500	$5
Visa Signature® Flagship Rewards	1,000	$10
GO REWARDS®	750	$7.50
Pooled Rewards	2,250	$22.50

Redemption Options

You may choose the amount of point rewards to redeem using the following options.

Cash Deposit:

- Deposit rewards redeemed for cash to an eligible Navy Federal account. Redemptions for cash will post within one business day. Cash deposit redemptions must be completed in the Navy Federal mobile app or using your online banking account at navyfederal.org.

Statement Credit:

- Apply the cash value of your redeemed rewards directly to your credit card account as a credit. The credit will not pay your required minimum payment due amount. Redemptions for credit will post within 3-5 business days from the date they are redeemed.

Cover My Purchase:

- Use your rewards to pay part or all of your past purchases, lowering the amount you owe. Simply, it is like using rewards as a refund for your purchases.

Pay With Rewards:

- Use rewards to make a purchase, so they act like money and reduce the purchase amount at the point of checkout.

Annual Fee Credit:

- Use the cash value of your rewards to pay your card's annual fee, if any.

Merchandise:

- Use rewards earned to pay for merchandise displayed online through the Navy Federal Rewards Center.

Gift Card:

- Use your rewards to purchase a virtual or physical gift card to select merchants through the Navy Federal Rewards Center.

Conditions That May Impact Earnings & Redemptions

Rewards redemption may only be requested by the primary or joint cardholder and, if the cash deposit or statement credit redemption options are used, must be deposited into the primary or joint cardholder's savings or checking account or posted as a credit to your account.

Credits to your account will appear on your next monthly billing statement and will not affect your monthly minimum payment requirements.

Misuse

If we suspect or confirm that you or an Authorized User has misused your credit card account, we may prohibit, suspend, or cancel participation in the Program; all rewards will be forfeited and no longer eligible for redemption.

Examples of misuse include, but are not limited to:

- Attempting to generate or earn rewards through the false, misleading, or unethical creation of transactions
- Engaging in rewards redemption activity that creates elevated risk to Navy Federal

To cancel participation in the rewards program, we may either convert your account to a Navy Federal credit card product without a rewards program or close it.

Account Status

Rewards cannot be redeemed on past-due accounts.

Rewards may be redeemed while the account is open and in good standing.

Account Closure

If Navy Federal closes your account, unredeemed rewards will be forfeited and no longer eligible for redemption.

If you choose to close your account, you must redeem any available rewards at the time of closure. Any rewards not redeemed at that time will be forfeited.

- To request redemption and closure, please call 1-888-842-6328.

Rewards Forfeiture

You are not entitled to compensation from Navy Federal or any other entity if rewards are forfeited due to account closure, misuse, account status, or any other reason.

If you reside in the state of New York, rewards will not be forfeited when the account is closed, subject to certain exceptions. Please see Special Terms Applicable to New York State Residents for more information.

Upon the Passing of a Cardholder

When There Is a Surviving Joint Cardholder:

- The joint cardholder becomes the sole owner of the credit card account.
- All previously earned rewards remain available for redemption.
- Rewards may be earned and redeemed as long as the account stays open and in good standing.

When There Is Not a Surviving Joint Cardholder, But an Authorized User Exists

- An authorized user is not eligible to redeem previously earned rewards, unless they do the following:
 - Open a new Navy Federal credit card account,
 - Receive a credit limit on the new account that is equal to or greater than the remaining balance of the old account, and
 - Agree to repay the old account balance by transferring it to the new account.
- Authorized users should carefully evaluate whether value of the remaining rewards balance is greater than the cost of repaying the old account balance.

When There Is No Surviving Joint Cardholder or Authorized User

- All earned rewards are forfeited.
- If a primary or joint cardholder on the account resides in New York, exceptions apply. Please see Special Terms Applicable to New York State Residents for more information.

Redemption of Rewards Upon Account Closure

You should redeem, exchange, or use any accumulated rewards prior to closing your account. If your credit card account is closed by you or by us and you have not redeemed, exchanged, or used your accumulated rewards, you will receive the cash value of your remaining rewards via a deposit to a Navy Federal savings account or checking account on which you are an owner, a credit to your remaining credit card balance, or a check mailed to your address on file.

If we determine that a primary or joint cardholder has misused the credit card account or the card rewards program or has engaged in instances of fraud with respect to the credit card account or any related rewards program, all rewards may be forfeited.
